Check one.
Do not make an election if you are a resident of AK, FL, HI, MS, NH, NV, SD, TN, TX, WA, or WY.
The state of residence in the legal address on this IRA will determine the state income tax withholding requirements for your conversion.

Do not withhold state income tax from the IRA conversion. For residents of CA, NC, and OR, this box must be checked if federal income taxes are being withheld and you do not want state income taxes withheld. For residents of DE and MI, this box must be checked regardless of whether or not federal income taxes are being withheld if you do not want state income taxes withheld.

Withhold state income tax from the IRA conversion in accordance with the minimum amount or percentage, if any, as determined by the requirements of your state of residence. If your state does not provide a minimum amount or percentage for withholding and a specific percentage was not provided in the section below, state income taxes will not be withheld from your conversion.

Withhold state income tax from the IRA conversion at the percentage rate of:

Premiere Select® Roth IRA Conversion Customer Instructions, Terms and Conditions

Instructions, Terms and Conditions for the IRA Owner

Read these Instructions, Terms and Conditions carefully before completing and signing the attached form. The IRA owner is responsible for complying with IRS rules governing IRA distributions and conversions to a Roth IRA, including required minimum distributions. If an IRA owner fails to meet any IRS requirements regulating IRA distributions, the IRA owner may be subject to tax penalties. If the IRA owner has any questions regarding the IRA owner's specific situation, consult with either a tax advisor or the IRA owner's Authorized agent/Advisor.

Instructions, Terms and Conditions for Authorized agent/Advisor

If the Authorized agent/Advisor is signing this form on behalf of the IRA owner, the signor represents he or she is an authorized individual of the above-named Authorized agent/Advisor and that he or she is acting pursuant to the asset movement authorization previously granted by the IRA owner.

Read these Instructions, Terms and Conditions carefully before completing and signing the attached form. The IRA owner is responsible for complying with IRS rules governing IRA distributions and conversions to a Roth IRA, including required minimum distributions. If the Authorized agent/Advisor fails to meet any IRS requirements in regard to requesting an IRA distribution, the IRA owner may be subject to tax penalties.

Form Instructions

The attached form should be used by the IRA owner or an Authorized agent/Advisor that has been granted asset movement authority (herein,

"you" or "your") to request a Roth conversion from a Premiere Select Traditional IRA, Rollover IRA, SEP-IRA, or Fidelity SIMPLE IRA ("IRA") held through Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC ("FBS") and National Financial Services LLC ("NFS," together with FBS, "Fidelity").

The taxable converted amount will be subject to federal income, and in some cases, state taxes in the year in which the conversion occurs.

If the IRA owner is required to take a required minimum distribution from the IRA, the IRA owner must do so prior to converting to a Roth IRA.

SIMPLE IRA assets may be converted to a Roth IRA only after the expiration of the two-year period beginning on the date the IRA owner's employer first made contributions to the IRA owner's SIMPLE IRA.

If you wish to convert the entire account in kind, the IRA account will be closed unless you choose to leave the account open by checking the box in Section 2. Note that the option to leave the account open is not available for conversions initiated in ICP (Integrated Cashiering Platform, Fidelity's transaction entry tool used by Authorized agent/Advisor).

If you wish to convert an IRA currently held with another Custodian to a Premiere Select Roth IRA, you must first transfer the IRA to the same type of IRA prior to requesting the conversion. You will need to complete a Transfer of Assets Form to initiate this transfer and only one Premiere Select IRA Application to establish both IRAs.

Note to Authorized agent/Advisor: Do not send this Conversion form to Fidelity until the transfer of assets is complete.

Notice of Withholding

Read carefully before completing the Tax Withholding Elections section of the form.

A conversion to a Roth IRA is subject to federal (and in some cases, state) income tax withholding unless you elect not to have withholding apply. If you withhold state and/or federal taxes from your Roth IRA Conversion, the amount withheld may be subject to the 10% early withdrawal penalty unless an exception applies. Withholding will apply to the gross amount of each conversion, even if the IRA owner has made non-deductible contributions. Moreover, failure to provide a U.S. residential address will result in 10% federal income tax withholding on the conversion proceeds even if you have elected not to have tax withheld (an IRS requirement as applicable). A Post Office Box does not qualify as a residential address.

If you elect to have withholding apply (by indicating so on the Roth conversion form, by making no choice, or by not providing a U.S. residential address), federal income tax will be withheld from the conversion at a rate of at least ten percent (10%). If federal income tax is withheld from the conversion amount, state income taxes may also be withheld regardless of the election. See below for IRA owner's state's withholding rules. The IRA owner's state of residence will determine his or her state income tax withholding requirements, if any. The IRA owner's state of residence is determined by his or her legal address of record provided for the IRA.

Residents of AR, IA, KS, MA, ME, OK, and VT: If federal income tax is withheld, state income tax of at least the IRA owner's state's minimum requirements must be withheld in addition to federal income tax withholding at the time of the conversion. If you elect out of federal income tax withholding, state income tax will not be withheld unless you indicate otherwise.

Residents of CA, NC, and OR: If federal income tax is withheld, state income tax of at least the IRA owner's state's minimum requirements must be withheld in addition to federal income tax withholding at the time of the conversion unless you elect not to have state income taxes withheld.

Residents of DE: State income tax of at least the IRA owner's state's minimum requirements must be withheld regardless of whether or not federal income tax is withheld unless you elect not to have state income taxes withheld.

Residents of MI: State income tax of at least your state's minimum requirements must be withheld regardless of whether or not federal income tax is withheld. Tax withholding is not required if you meet certain MI requirements governing pension and retirement benefits. Reference the MI W-4P Form for additional information about calculating the amount to withhold from your distribution. Contact your tax advisor or Authorized agent/Advisor for additional information about MI requirements.

Residents of AK, FL, HI, MS, NH, NV, SD, TN, TX, WA, and WY: State income tax withholding is not available on Roth IRA conversions. Consult a tax advisor, state agency, or investment advisor for more information.

Residents of all other states and the District of Columbia: The IRA owner is not subject to mandatory state income tax withholding; however, you may elect voluntary state income tax withholding in a percentage. If you elect to have state income taxes withheld and the IRA owner's state provides a minimum amount or percentage for withholding, you must elect a percentage that is not less than the IRA owner's state's minimum withholding requirements. If the percentage you elect for withholding is less than the IRA owner's state's minimum withholding requirements, the IRA owner's state's minimum amount or percentage will be withheld.

Important: State tax withholding rules can change, and the rules cited above may not reflect the current ruling of the IRA owner's state. Consult with a tax or investment advisor to obtain the most up-to-date information pertaining to the IRA owner's state.

Whether or not you elect to have federal and, if applicable, state income tax withheld, the IRA owner is still responsible for the full payment of federal income tax, any state tax or local taxes, and any penalties which may apply to this conversion. Whether or not you elect to have withholding apply (by indicating so on the Roth conversion form), the IRA owner may be responsible for payment of estimated taxes. The IRA owner may incur penalties under the IRS and applicable state tax rules if the IRA owner's estimated tax payments are not sufficient.

If the IRA owner is not a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien), you must submit IRS Form W-8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding, prior to submitting the Roth conversion form to claim tax treaty benefits, if applicable. A conversion will be subject to applicable non-treaty tax withholding rates if the IRA owner fails to provide your Authorized agent/Advisor Form W-8BEN. To obtain Form W-8BEN, consult a tax advisor or go to the IRS Web site at <http://www.irs.gov>.
